Corkhill—Did you ever see anything in the prisoner to indicate insanity?

Answer—No sir, I never did.

Guiteau here broke in and proceeded to express his epinion of Dr. McArthur in terms not delicate. Turning to the reporters table he declaimed for some minutes against the scandelous report of his character, and shook his fist at them threateningly.

Scoville cross-examined the witness and became very angry and much ex-cited at some of his replies. The testimony in chief was not

A railroad fight is certainly pending in which the Atchinson, Topeka & San-ta Fe, the Denver & Rio Grande and the Denver & New Orleans are more or less interested. In the case the Denver & Rio Grande builds south, which it is preparing to do, it involves the dissolution of the agreement existing between that road and the A., T. & S. F. Even if the new road is extended under the auspices of a new corporation it will no doubt be considered a sufficient pretext on the part of the broad gauge to an-nul the contract. The Denver & New Orleans road is interested in the issue directly in case that road should choose the mountain road to the sea board, or in any way compete with the roads for trade of Trimidad, Las Vegas, and the Rio Grande River towns.
